STOCKHOLM, Sweden, January 25.

—Scandinavia is mourning the death in Copenhagen of M. Frederik Bajer. Departs of M. Frederik Bajer. Departs greatest advocate of world peace. During the eighty-five years of his life Bajer left a deep imprint upon Scandinavian thought through his untiring work for woman suffrage. republican methods of government and international peace. After beginning his career as a cavalry officer in the Danish-German war of 1864, Bajer retired from military life, convinced that warfare was useless.

It was upon Bajer's initiative that the first world peace bureau wes organized in Bern in 1892. While in the Danish parliament he developed
